TRANSITION WORDS

What are transitions and how are they used?

- · transitions are phrases or words used to connect one idea to the next
- · transitions are used by the author to help the reader progress from one significant idea to the next
- transitions also show the relationship within a paragraph (or within a sentence) between the main idea and the support the author gives for those ideas
- · different transitions do different things....

Transitions may be "Additive," "Adversative," "Causal," or "Sequential."

Additive Transitions: These show addition, introduction, similarity to other ideas, &c.

Addition:

indeed,	further,	as well (as this),	either (neither),	not only (this) but also (that) as well,
also,	moreover,	what is more,	as a matter of fact,	in all honesty,
and,	furthermore,	in addition (to this),	besides (this),	to tell the truth,
or,	in fact,	actually,	to say nothing of,
too,	let alone,	much less	additionally,
nor,	alternatively,	on the other hand,	not to mention (this),

Adversative Transitions:

These transitions are used to signal conflict, contradiction concession, dismissal, &c.

Conflict:

but, by way of contrast, while, on the other hand, however, (and) yet, whereas, though (final position), in contrast, when in fact, conversely, still even more, above all, indeed, more importantly, besides

[back to list]

Concession:

even though, on the other hand, admittedly, but even so, nevertheless, however, nonetheless, despite (this), notwithstanding (this), albeit (and) still, in spite of (this), regardless (of this), although, (and) yet, though, granted (this), be that as it may,

Dismissal:

either way, whichever happens, in either event, in any case, at any rate, in either case, whatever happens, all the same, in any event,

[back to list]

Replacement:

(or) at least, (or) rather, instead

Causal Transitions: These transitions signal cause/effect and reason/result, etc. . .

Cause/Reason:

for the (simple) reason that, being that, for, in view of (the fact), inasmuch as, because (of the fact), seeing that, as, owing to (the fact), due to (the fact that), in that since, forasmuch as,

[back to list]

Condition:

on (the) condition (that), granted (that), if, provided that, in case, in the event that, as/so long as, unless given that, granting (that), providing that, even if, only if,

Effect/Result:

as a result (of this),	consequently,	hence,	for this reason,	thus,
because (of this),	in consequence,	so that,	accordingly
as a consequence,	so much (so) that,	SO,	therefore,

[back to list]

Purpose:

so that,	for fear that,	in the hope that,	for the purpose of,
lest	in order to,	to the end that,	with this intention,
so,	so as to,	in order that,	with this in mind,

[back to list]

Consequence:

under those circumstances, then, in that case, that being the case, if so, otherwise

[back to list]

if not,

Sequential Transitions:

These transitions are used to signal a chronological or logical sequence.

Numerical:

in the (first, second, etc.) place, initially, to start with, first of all thirdly, (&c.) to begin with, at first, for a start, secondly,

[back to list]
